

Dan Savitt Named One of NYC's 2023 "Power Player in Health Care"

PoliticsNY and amNY Metro recently named Dan Savitt, VNS Health president and CEO., as one of NYC's "Power Players in Health Care" for their 2023 list. The list features individuals who've dedicated their work and lives to improving the health and wellness of all New Yorkers and those who push for positive change and progress in the healthcare industry. Dan is recognized for his outstanding work in making health care simple to understand and easy to access with meaningful outcomes.

Read the full article and Q&A here.