

Future In Focus: Dan Savitt, President And CEO, VNS Health

President and CEO, Dan Savitt, recently sat down with Home Health Care News to discuss how VNS Health has incorporated behavioral health into both medical and social aspects of care. He also talks about how VNS Health has advanced in other areas of the organization and what can be done inside and outside the organization to support that advancement.

Read the full interview here.